Your thoughts, your outcome

Two seeds are the center of this story.

The first seed said she wanted to get off the ground to grow. Whatever happens along the way, she's up for it.

And so she grew. Her life was colorful. She may encounter problems once in a while. But her heart was happy about her choice to get off the ground.

Then there's the other seed. Unlike the first seed's vibrant approach to the possibilities ahead, she sat there worrying. She was worried about any missed opportunities that may come when she leaves the ground. She's also worried about being exposed to too much sun.

And because her head was full of worries, she didn't go anywhere. She played it safe and waited.

One day, a hen came near the ground where the second seed waited. It then stumbled upon the seed, and devoured it.

The lesson? There's nothing wrong with playing it safe. But playing it safe can sometimes be dangerous.

Plus, if you want a promising outcome, playing it safe isn't the way to go. Instead, you need to take risks and get out there.

KEEPING THE SOURROUNDINGS CLEAN

Once upon a time, there lived a girl named Riya. She lived in a town with her father, mother and her brother Atharv. She lived happily with her family, but she was always sad about one thing. Their town was always untidy. She wanted to do something about this. So she and Atharv spread awareness about this by putting boards everywhere highlighting on how to keep the city clean. But, this was followed by only some people. Not satisfied she thought of telling the children first.

She hence first spread the awareness amongst the children. Then they all together painted huge boxes to make dustbins. Then they placed the dustbins all over the town.

After that, all of them together made the people to understand why we need to keep the city clean and what we should do in order to keep the city clean.

This way the people understood how to keep the city clean.

From that day onwards the city was clean and tidy.

POEM

EVERY DAY IS A NEW BEGINNING

Every day is a new beginning
 Every morning is a new life
 Every morning tea starts a day
 No Past, No Future

Every day is a fresh start
 A day starts with a smile
 Every smile changes a day
 No Past, No Future

Every forgiveness gives birth to a new beginning
 Every sorry makes you smile
 Each smile should say sorry
 No Past, No Future

Every second brings a new beginning
 Each beginning starts with a second
 No matter what may have happened
 No Past, No Future

Everyday is a new beginning

Everyday is a new beginning

Just laugh and live it

Every second is counted how

You live it

So laugh and just live it all

Our life is beautiful

As rightly said a day without laughter

Is a day wasted

Keep your thoughts aside

Just go forward

And win your life

Success is a goal for us

but desires do not leave us

Just keep them aside

Move forward

Your arrogance is your enemy

Fight with it

Live life beautiful

As it is lived just once

Laugh and continue

Success comes finding you

If you are a hard worker

Everyday is a new beginning
